

Lotterywest reveals luckiest Lotto numbers in lead up to $21 million Superdraw

18 March 2016

With luck still in the air following St Patrick's Day celebrations yesterday, Lotterywest is revealing the luckiest Superdraw winning Lotto numbers in the hope luck might continue into tomorrow night's $21 million Superdraw.

"If players are searching for lucky numbers which might win them a slice of the Superdraw prize they may like to try the most commonly drawn numbers across the seven Superdraws last year which include 10, 13, 16, 27, 29 and 37," said Lotterywest spokesperson Pina Compagnone.

"These numbers were all drawn three times in the 2015 Superdraws, except number 10 which was drawn twice."

Nicole Callegari, who works at Callows Corner Lottery Centre in Busselton and sold a Division 1 winning ticket worth $1,176,470 in the February Superdraw, said that staff have been flat out selling Lotto for the weekend and the string of jackpots.

"We're always busy here but it's stepped up a notch with the jackpots and the Superdraw. Locals come in all the time but there's definitely more new faces, everyone wants to win!" said Nicole.

"People have heard we're a lucky store and when travelling from Perth, make a point to come here and buy tickets from us."

It's expected that 770,000 tickets will be sold across WA in tomorrow night's $21 million Saturday Lotto Superdraw which will help raise an estimated $4.3 million for the local community.

The Busselton Volunteer Marine Rescue Group Inc received a $90,000 Lotterywest Grant last year from funds raised from the sale of Lotterywest Games. This grant was used towards the construction of a building extension to support the work of the marine rescue volunteers in Busselton.

Players can purchase tickets until 6pm tomorrow for the $21 million Saturday Lotto Superdraw in-store, through Play Online and the Lotterywest App.
