A triple treat of Lotto luck leading up to $30 million Megadraw

10 December 2018

Western Australia's Lotto luck is in full swing just weeks away from the $30 million Megadraw, after three local Division One winners were welcomed from the weekend.

Each ticket, worth $439,800, remains unclaimed and were purchased from the following Lotterywest stores:

- Australind News & Post, Australind;
- Forrest News, Hamilton Hill; and
- Cockburn Gateway Lottery Centre, Success.

While it's the fifth Division One win of 2018 for WA's official hot spot Success, it's the first for both Forrest News and Australind.

Owner of Australind News & Post, Stephen Lucas, said a big prize delivered to the South West brings confidence that Lotto dreams can come true for those living in the regions.

"Christmas can mean tough times for some, and this win will definitely make the holidays cheerful for one of our lucky customers," he said.

WA's 2018 Division One tally has now climbed to 51, with these winners sharing in more than $102 million worth of prize money.

Thanks to those that play Lotterywest games, a Lotterywest grant of $20,000 will support the 2019 Live Lighter South West Multicultural Festival in February which celebrates the coming together of diverse cultures.

Tickets for the $30 million Megadraw are available until 6pm day of the draw from Lotterywest in-store, online or through the app.
