

A whole Lotto LOVE in the lead up to Valentine's Day Eve Superdraw

10 February 2016

Division 1 Lotto winners in WA often speak about how their windfall will help their loved ones and make their dreams come true.

Over the past year there have been some particularly romantic stories where Lotto winners expressed their love inside the Lotterywest Winners Room.

With her $1,415,048 Saturday Lotto prize won in July 2015, a Balcatta woman plans to pay for her son and soon to be daughter in law's wedding this year. She said that her son and his fiancé never wanted to get married before they met each other and fell completely in love.

"They're perfect for each other and as the kids are still studying, I just had to help with their big day," said the woman.

A year on from winning $2,222,222 in Saturday Lotto, a couple from Woodlands have used their prize money to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary back in their honeymoon location. The couple hadn't travelled to Canada since they got married and found it magical to re-live their special holiday from a quarter of a century ago.

After winning $23.3 million in a Powerball draw in November 2015, a young engaged couple from Cockburn said that their wedding, which they thought would take many years to save up for, could happen much earlier. They were also excited about sharing the joy of their win with their family and making a real difference to the lives of others.

An engaged couple from Greenfields were 'over the moon' to win nearly $350,000 in a Saturday Lotto draw in November 2015 so they could begin planning their wedding and honeymoon.

$25 million Powerball jackpot tomorrow then Saturday marks first Superdraw for 2016!

$25 million is up for grabs in tomorrow's Powerball draw followed by the very first Saturday Lotto Superdraw of 2016 this weekend which offers the chance to win $20 million just before Valentine's Day.

Approximately 800,000 tickets are expected to be sold in WA for the exciting Saturday Lotto event.
