Another Saturday Lotto win for Cloverdale

15 April 2019

Here's Luck Lottery Centre in Belmont Forum is the early frontrunner to be Western Australia's luckiest store in 2019.

In the store's second Division One win for the year, its top prize from the weekend is set to deliver more than $547,000.

Owner of Here's Luck Lottery Centre Cloverdale Rajendrum Selvendra said it was wonderful to sell another winning ticket.

"This has been a great start to the year," he said.

"We are certainly living up to our reputation as one of WA's luckiest stores."

The winning numbers for Saturday's draw were 16, 21, 18, 25, 22, 19 with supplementary numbers 41 and 4.

The Western Australian winner was one of seven nationwide.

Lotterywest Spokesperson Jennie Fitzhardinge said April has seen a run of good fortune for WA players.

"So far this month we have had three Division One winners, two for Wednesday Lotto and now one for Saturday," she said.

"This week there's still plenty of chances to be our next winner with Tuesday's OZ Lotto's jackpot at $10 million and Powerball at $12 million."

Tickets are available through Lotterywest retailers, online and via the app until 6pm on the day of the draw.

When Western Australians play with Lotterywest, the benefits flow on to our public hospitals, sports, the arts, and community groups.
