

Cashed-up Christmas: WA delivers three Division 1 winners ahead of a bumper Lotto week!

27 December 2017

Three Western Australians have had a Christmas to remember after each taking home over $420,000 in the weekend's Saturday Lotto draw.

The Division 1 winning Lotto tickets, which remain unclaimed, were purchased from:

- Parry's Newsagency in Nollamara
- The Village News in High Wycombe
- Lotterywest membership online

For High Wycombe, it's the second Division 1 winner sold in the suburb in just seven months, following a $2.6 million win in May.

"For me, this is the perfect Christmas present," said owner of The Village News, Jimmy Wang.

"I've had the store for six years and I've just delivered our first big winner – I'm very excited!" he added.

This year the lucky State has produced 64 Division 1 Lotto winners who have shared in over $122 million worth of prizes.

For those wanting to be initiated into the Division 1 club, the $25 million Powerball jackpot tomorrow night will help you get there, followed by one of the biggest Lotto events of the year – the $30 million Megadraw on Saturday 30 December.

"We're hoping to open the door of our Winners Room to a few more newly minted millionaires before the year is out," Lotterywest spokesperson Pina Compagnone said.

Tickets for this week's draws are available until 6pm draw day from Lotterywest in-store, online or by downloading the Lotterywest app.
