

Cupid's Lotto love arrow hits WA Superdraw winners!

13 February 2016

Romance isn't the only thing that's been in the air this Valentine's Day Eve, tonight's $20 million Saturday Lotto Superdraw is sure to have brought a loving feeling to the State's two Division 1 winners.

The $20 million Division 1 prize pool was shared by 17 across the nation with each lucky ticket holding a $1,176,470 prize.

WA's newest millionaires purchased their tickets at Callows Corner Lottery Centre in Busselton and Inglewood Amcal Civic News.

Callows Corner Lottery Centre last sold a Division 1 winning ticket less than six months ago with a Busselton couple claiming the $235,440 Saturday Lotto prize.

The Superdraw has also made 168,431 other WA players winners in Divisions 2-6 including 25 Division 2 winners scooping $8,579 each.

Anyone who purchased a Superdraw ticket is encouraged to check them for the winning numbers of 2, 43, 27, 25, 28 and 8.

It's not only WA's Superdraw winners who have reason to celebrate tonight's draw, the local community can celebrate with them as $4.3 million was expected to be raised from the sale of Superdraw tickets to benefit the WA community.

The Busselton Family Centre received the benefits of those who play Lotterywest Games with a $5,300 Lotterywest Grant this month. These funds will be used towards an early childhood presentation on the importance of play with the emphasis on playing outside.
