Lotterywest celebrates 17th Division 1 win ahead of Saturday Superdraw

20 March 2017

Almost three months into the year and Western Australia is celebrating its 17th Division 1 Lotto winner.

The latest win sold through Lotterywest Play Online is on Saturday night's Super66 game and worth $101,199.

Lotterywest spokesperson Pina Compagnone said Lotterywest hopes the State's run of winners was a sign of more good things to come ahead of this Saturday's $21 million Superdraw.

"We're averaging almost two Division 1 wins a week," Ms Compagnone said.

"This has included nine millionaires and four multi-millionaires including an unemployed Lathlain woman who scooped $15 million last month," she said.

Meanwhile, a Good Samaritan from the City of Bayswater has come forward to claim last weekend's $1.4 million Saturday Lotto prize.

The woman, aged in her 70s, said she while she was past retirement age she continued to volunteer in the local community.

"I'll be donating the bulk of the money to charity. It's a good feeling being able to help others," the woman said.

The woman said she had been playing a Slikpik 12 ticket each Saturday for almost 20 years.

"I've had some good wins – a few hundred dollars here and there," she said.

"It sounds cliché but you really do have to be in it to win it," she added.

The winning ticket was purchased Morley Millions.

When you play with Lotterywest all of WA wins! Players who purchase tickets in this weekend's Superdraw will help Lotterywest raise over $4 million to support the WA community.

To further celebrate the Superdraw, Lotterywest is also giving players the chance to go in the draw to win one of three prizes of $21,000!
